GUNPOWDER PLOT

CHARACTERS:

Guy Fawkes and John Johnson, his servant

The Catholics : Francis Tresham, Robert Catesby, John Grant, Lord Monteagle

King James I and Robert Cecil, his secretary

Guards and Narrator

Narrator: It's April, in 1605, we are in London, England, at the age of King James I, and something is going to happen, the catholic people are very angry with the king.

Catholics: we want to pray in our church, we want to be catholic, not protestant.

King James: not at all, I'm the head of the church, you can't be catholic anymore, that's my decision.

Robert Catesby: why don't we kill the king? I want to be catholic, I'm not going to follow his rules.

John Grant: yes, it's a good idea, we will make a plot and we will kill the king! What can we do?

Francis Tresham: we can blow up the parliament during the ceremony of the opening, so we will kill the king and the parliament too! I know a good man who can help us! Guy Fawkes!

Robert and John: Blow up the parliament? With the king (heide) great idea! We need a plan and a new man. Let's think about it. It will be on November the 5th! We have a few months to organise everything. Let's meet this boy, Guy Fawkes, can you introduce him?

Francis: he's a strange Guy, He's very tall and well built, he has got straight red hair, moustaches and beard and he has got small dark eyes. He has got a long nose and a long pointed face. He lived in Spain and he likes explosives.

Narrator: after a few days, Francis meets Guy Fawkes and makes his offer to take part in the plot.

Guy: Hi Francis, how are you?

Francis: Fine Guy, listen, I want you to take part in a plan, to kill the king and to blow up the parliament.

Guy: kill the king? Blow up the parliament? Wow! When are we going to do it?

Francis: November the 5th, during the opening of the Parliament. Do you join us?

Guy: of course, yes!

Francis: Here, John, Robert, this is Guy Fawkes, it's our man, the expert in explosives!

Robert, John: Hello Guy, Nice to meet you!

Guy: nice to meet you too, I like your plot, can we call it the gunpowder plot? Ah, this is my servant, John Johnson.

Johnson: how do you do my lords.

Guy: listen, this is the plan. We put 36 barrels of gunpowder under the parliament, we can rent a cellar by the river Thames, under the parliament. On the 5th of November, I'll set off the ignition and the gunpowder will explode and the king will be dead.

Robert and John: long live the king! We will make his daughter Elisabeth the new queen and she will be more tolerant with us.

Guy: OK, I start to organise everything we need.

Narrator: Guy starts to look for the materials he needs: gunpowder

The Story of November the 4th, 1605

The cathedral clock had just struck eleven, it was an hour before midnight. The cold, damp cellar was lit by the spluttering light of a single lantern. A rat scuttled by making Guy Fawkes jump. He crouched there rubbing his hands, deep in thought and shivering in the bitter cold of the Autumn night. Next to him, in wooden barrels, was the gunpowder which he hoped would help bring in a new era for his Catholic countrymen. The cellar was right below the Houses of Parliament, where the protestant King James I and all his lords were going to meet the next day. Guy hoped to get rid of them all in one mighty explosion.

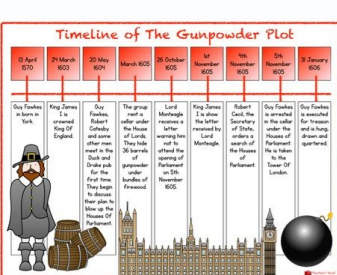

But then, out of the darkness, came a noise! Hard thumping footsteps and the deep voices of men began to draw closer. A key turned in the lock of the door. Holding lanterns and swords in front of them, in marched the King's Guard...
